

Wondering Where to Meet Singles in San Diego? Check These Places!

San Diego is a great city filled with all sorts of people. The dating scene in San Diego is by far one of the best in the state of California because there are so many great places to meet singles! You could walk down any street and find countless bars, restaurants, and the like that are brimming with locals who are fascinatingly charming, carefree, and up for a bit of fun!

So, what are some of the best singles bars in San Diego, you ask? Well, keep reading because we have 17 (yes, 17!) great places where you can meet singles in San Diego! Oh, but we aren't going to just cover bars, there's:

Union Kitchen & Tap

For those who are looking for something a little upscale, but still charmingly rustic, you've got to check out Union Kitchen & Tap in the Gaslight district. There is plenty of seating outside that connects the lively indoor vibe with the fresh air outside. Because you can dine outside, if you happen to see someone walking by that you can't take your eyes off, if you're suave enough, ask them to join you for a local craft beer, a glass of vintage wine, or a hand-crafted cocktail. While it may be a bold move, you may find that boldness could work in your favor!

BarleyMash

Instead of wondering where to meet singles in San Diego, just head over to the Gaslamp district and check out BarleyMash. This venue is the place where singles in the city go when they want to be in the thick of a fun, high energy downtown restaurant that celebrates American culture. This is the place to be if you're a tourist who wants to meet a local to possibly show them around the city, or even if you're a local who wants to find someone who appreciates a great glass of bourbon or supports the micro- and nano-breweries in and around the San Diego area. BarleyMash embraces the American dining experience and aesthetic that reminds customers that life is meant to be "sipped and savored, and good times should always be shared." Why not share life (or the night) with someone great?
